

ALBERTA ON THE PLATE

festival supporter - $500 (cash or in-kind)

Alberta on the Plate is an authentic showcase of the incredible bounty of locally grown and produced ingredients. We celebrate the amazing agricultural and culinary communities across the province, combined with the organizations that support and champion these industries.

As an organization that embraces our local farmers and restaurants, Festival Supporters will receive the following benefits:

Web Promotion

(including your logo on the website alongside a paragraph about your organization)

Agricultural Virtual Networking Sessions

(including invitation to attend virtual sessions alongside chefs and producers, opportunity to provide digital promotional materials for attendees). *Additional promotional opportunities if in-person sessions are possible.

Newsletter

(including mention in all monthly editions)

Social Posts & Stories

(dedicated posts about your organization leading up to and throughout the festival, tags in relevant posts, prize giveaway opportunity)
